What parents say...

Partha ji is a master storyteller.His narration is very interesting and entertaining yet simple for young kids to understand. His energy and enthusiasm is captivating. Nevertheless,the lessons to be learned are not lost in the fun.”Think before act”. “Never to poison a mind”few lessons that the kids learned If we want to instill ethics, righteousness and respect in kids then what better way than absorbing the values of Ramayana.Heartfelt Thanks to Vedanta Peetam for organizing this summer camp.

--Suma Duvvuri, Cupertino, US

ParthaJi engages with the kids very well.They learn very important life lessons through fun and interesting Ramayana stories.

--Latha Chouthri, Sunnyvale, US

Ramayana story time by Parthaji during shloka class, is very engaging and interesting for kids as he narrates the story with lot of expressions. It helps them imbibe lot of moral values. It has helped my daughter learn values like discipline, honesty and concentration as Parthaji always stresses on these values during narration.

--Shilpa Balaji, Bangalore

My daughter has been attending Parthaji’s Shloka class every week. We are absolutely amazed how much our daughter learned in these past few months. She has been learning and enjoying the class very much and looks forward to learn more We can’t wait for our daughter to attend the Ramayan Summer camp!!

--Jaya Khemani, New York, US

For the past few months, my son has been attending Partha Sir’s lessons Ramayana story. He uses simple and descriptive language to help the kids understand the story in an entertaining way. He never fails to finish class by teaching an important life lesson to the kids. As a parent, I too enjoy listening in on the story.

--Lakshmi Prasad, Cupertino, US

Ramayana story for kids is really inspiring and motivates them with positive thoughts, interesting to attend classes 😊 Also Parthaji narrates the story in a way kids understands in an easy way.

--Bindu Musunru, San Jose, US

"The stories are interesting and they provide greater detail than reading from a book. Partha ji is an excellent story teller and he captivates the audience through his stories."
--Sarvani Jandhyala, Fremont, US

"My daughter is enjoying the Ramayana we are thankful for Partha ji for teaching morals , kindness and good about Rama which inspires kids to learn from it."
--Kiranmayi Sadhu, Cupertino, US

"It's great effort by the Vedanta Vidya Peetam. Kids can learn a lot from here. Great job Partha sir and Rama garu ."
-- Sirisha Koppoal, United States

"Love the happy tears that roll down the cheeks when you child narrates you the “Ramayana” story. Glad I enrolled her in Vedantha Vidhya Peetam ,sloka class . The way they teach your kid is awesome"
-- Deepa Murugan, Cupertino, United States

"My daughter enjoys Ramayana story time, she remembers quite a many names from the story. Other day her dad was sleeping for longer, she said stop sleeping like Kumba karana ☺ and she always wants to be Rama when we fight for fun. Though it's funny but we feel very proud when she can discriminate good vs bad and can relate Ramayana to our real life. Thanks Partha ji for adding story time in sloka class... "
-- Shweta Pattar, Cupertino, US

"Excited and Thrilled" are the words that my six year old often uses to describe her Ramayana story sessions with Partha Ji! It is very heartening to see how easily the little ones pick up complex plot points and sensitivities embedded in our epics, especially when the story teller is so seasoned and congenial!! Time very well spent for children!"
--Maithrreiyi Raghunathan, Sunnyvale, California

"Dilan would look forward to the sloka classes to hear the Ramayana storytelling. He really enjoyed listening to the story and would love to retell the story to us during his bed time. I would highly recommend the Ramayana story telling summer camp as it is informative and fun for kids."
--Rama Logachandru, New Jersey, US

"...when it's time for the Ramayana story, Aarna loves it. They say it in simple language where the kids of all age group can understand and follow it. I couldn't ask for more."
--Lalitha Uppada, San Jose, US

"...Our children learning these precious texts along with their meanings, is any parents best intentions towards a child, but learning the beautiful story of Ramayana was cherry on the cake. Irrespective of the parent's knowledge of Ramayana, seldom do children and parents find time to sit and talk about anything other than academics or domestic ongoings. The void of grandparents, who would have taken time to tell the children these stories lovingly and patiently is filled with these Ramayana story sessions. Ishaan enjoys these sessions a lot and whenever he makes references to Ramayana story and characters, it just fills us with a feeling of bliss, of "Thank God, I did something right, for once, by enrolling him at Vedanta Peetham" all thanks to Ramaji and Parthaji and their dedication to educating and nurturing our children."
--Raki Katta, Cupertino, US

"Introducing Ramayana at this tender age has definitely inspired my daughter to learn more about Rama. Earlier she used to ask all princess stories during bed time, but these days she insists me to read Rama stories and makes me read Ramayana every night. And Sita became her best friend now. I was surprised to see that she actually introduced Ramayana characters in her play time. Along with her, we are also blessed to be part of this divine journey. "
